

NIE Ads

Argus Observer

CALLING ALL EDUCATORS!

MAKE NEWSPAPER IN EDUCATION (NIE) A PART OF YOUR CLASSROOM CURRICULUM

NIE is a nationwide program designed to promote and increase literacy through the use of newspapers as a teaching tool.

This program extends learning in and outside the classroom. Students can learn everything from language arts, mathematics and science to community awareness, local news and world affairs. With our Kid Scoop! page, students have fun learning with its educational stories and activities.

To find out how you can get Newspaper in Education in your classroom and to inquire about the program...

Please call the Newspaper Name
NIE Department at ###-####.

YOU! can make a difference in a child's education by becoming a Newspaper in Education (NIE) sponsor!!

What is NIE?

NIE, Newspaper in Education, is a cooperative effort between schools and newspapers to promote the use of newspapers as an educational resource.

NIE extends students' learning in and out of the classroom. From language skills, mathematics and science to local news, community awareness and world affairs. The list is endless on what they can learn from the newspaper.

How do you fit in as a Sponsor?

Being an NIE Sponsor brings a copy of the Newspaper Name to each student in the classroom each week, plus a copy for the educator; The Kid Scoop! page for each student, with educational stories and activities; and a teacher's guide and monthly newsletter, both filled with hundreds of innovative, captivating, workable ideas. But more importantly, sponsoring newspapers in the classroom provides the gift of helping children become well-informed, productive citizens.

To find out how you can become a Newspaper in Education sponsor, and make a difference in a child's education, please contact:
Newspaper Name NIE Department at ###-####.

Job Journeys Ads

Courtesy of Mount Vernon News

LISA SEALOVER
SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Lisa Sealover is the principal at Highland North Elementary School.

This is her second year in the position.

Her duties include the management of the building; curriculum implementation; coordination of staff, student and parent activities; and maintenance of the school budget.

Her favorite part of the job is knowing that she is impacting students' futures.

A black and white photograph of Lisa Sealover, a woman with short hair and glasses, smiling and holding a clipboard and pen.

NEWSPAPERS IN EDUCATION

PAUL J. FARSON
FIREFIGHTER

Paul J. Farson is a captain on the Mount Vernon Fire Department.

He has been a firefighter for 19 years, serving eight of those years as captain.

His duties include running the daily operation of the fire department.

He enjoys helping others and getting paid to do so.

A black and white photograph of Paul J. Farson in full firefighter gear, including a helmet and oxygen tank.

NEWSPAPERS IN EDUCATION

PERRY CARPENTER
SCHOOL BUS DRIVER

Perry Carpenter is a school bus driver for the Mount Vernon City Schools.

He has been a bus driver for 23 years.

His duties include driving approximately 140 miles per day around the Amity area, picking up and delivering students to their homes.

He enjoys being with the kids.

A black and white photograph of Perry Carpenter sitting in the driver's seat of a school bus.

NEWSPAPERS IN EDUCATION

Vacation Donation Ad

Vacation Plans?

When you go on vacation,
MAKE A DONATION TO NIE!

It's easy!

The next time you stop your paper when you leave, ask for the vacation donation option. Vacation donation is a program set up for Newspaper in Education (NIE), where the money from your vacation stop is donated to NIE to supply newspapers in the classrooms for students. The perks? Your billing date stays the same and you donate a valuable tool to teachers and students in local schools.

If you would like more information please call: ###-####

Your newspaper/NIE logo here