

Bob and Marion Breeden University of Oklahoma Journalism Student Aid Fund

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Application Postmark Deadline: February 18, 2009

Mail application materials to: Oklahoma Newspaper Foundation
3601 N. Lincoln Blvd., Oklahoma City, OK 73105
(405) 499-0020 / Fax (405) 499-0049

Application form available in PDF format at <http://www.okpress.com/scholarships>

The Oklahoma Newspaper Foundation is a non-profit organization that works to provide newspaper journalism education. Each year the foundation awards one $500 scholarship to a senior enrolled at the University of Oklahoma. Applicants should be enrolled full-time during the 2009-10 school year in a journalism or equivalent degree program with plans to pursue a newspaper career upon graduation.

Name: _____ Phone #: (_____) _____

Current Mailing Address: _____
City State Zip Code

E-mail Address: _____

Parent(s) Names: _____ Phone #: (_____) _____

Parent(s) Mailing Address: _____
City State Zip Code

Classification in Fall 2009: Senior December Graduate

Major: Journalism Communication
 Advertising Public Relations Other: _____

Cumulative GPA: _____ Major GPA (journalism courses): _____

Please explain if you expect to receive other financial assistance in paying for your college education in 2009-2010.

WRITTEN STATEMENT: On another sheet of paper, please describe your career goals within the journalism industry. In your answer, please include how you plan to achieve those goals, and what you expect to be doing professionally five and ten years after graduation.

Submit with your completed application form:

- Resumé listing journalism and work experience, extracurricular activities, awards and honors
- Most recent college transcript
- Written statement describing your career goals
- (Optional) One letter of recommendation from a professor or employer familiar with your work

Applications must be postmarked by February 18, 2009.

WRITTEN STATEMENT: Please describe your career goals within the journalism industry. Please include in your answer how you plan to achieve those goals, and what you expect to be doing professionally five and ten years after graduation.