

Half and Quarter Century Club inductees are honored with a plaque during the OPA Convention.

Being a member of any profession for 25 or 50 years is not only a personal achievement, it is an important milestone that should be recognized.

That's why the Oklahoma Press Association recognizes the contributions of those who have served in the newspaper industry by inducting them into the Half Century and Quarter Century Clubs at the annual OPA Convention.

Anyone may make nominations for the Quarter or Half Century Clubs. Self-nominations also are acceptable.

New members will be inducted during the 2012 OPA Convention, June 7-9, at the Reed Center in Midwest City.

To apply for induction in either club, review the criteria and submit the form along with a biography or resumé detailing years of service to the newspaper industry.

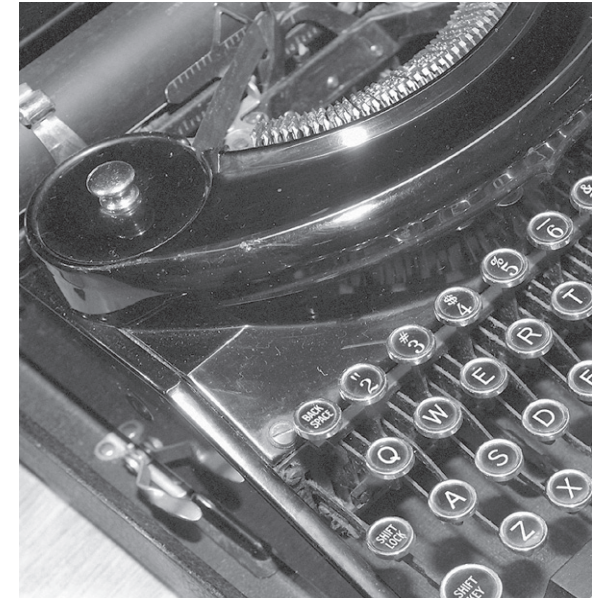

The nomination form is also available on the OPA Web at:
